ALUMNÆ NOTES

Elizabeth Franklin writes that she attended the concert given by our Glee Club in Richmond and enjoyed the performance exceedingly.

A letter from Virginia Simpson Robertson informs us that she has been substituting in the grades of the Norfolk Schools, from the first to the eighth. She assures us of her co-operation in any way that she may be of service.

Sallie Loving is teaching in Cherrydale, Va. "I love H. T. C. as dearly as I ever did and if I do not get back for commencement or if I seem negligent it isn't because my love for it or its inhabitants has waned in the least."

Elsie Burnett, of Petersburg, writes that the Alumnæ Chapter there has been quite active this year and that they are about ready to send in their quota to the Johnston Memorial Fund.

Mary T. Moreland, of Norfolk, is teaching there again this year. "I cannot ever forget my happy days at Harrisonburg and the friends I made there."

Mrs. Virginia Borst Hall sends money for Life Membership in the Alumnæ Association. Her address is Sutherland, Va.

A letter from Miriam Jones Claud informs us that she has a new baby boy just three weeks old. "It looks like I might have had me a girl to send to H. T. C.!"

Isabel Sparrow, who is teaching English at Stuart Hall, Staunton, Va., writes as follows: "I have looked forward each month to the coming of the VIRGINIA TEACHER and its news of all my friends. This is my second year at Stuart Hall and I am coming back next year. I am crazy about the work and the girls. We have about one hundred and thirty-five boarders and a number of day students. As we have twenty-four teachers, you can see that our classes are nice and small, and we do a great deal of individual work. We have partial student government, which simplifies the discipline problems for us teachers. I am looking forward to being at commencement this year, and to seeing all the H. T. C. girls."

Mary Rhodes Lineweaver writes from Alexandria, where she is teaching, that she has been getting the various letters from the Alumnæ Office and that she has been enjoying the news from the college. We expect Mary Rhodes home in time for commencement.

Virginia Elver writes from Norfolk. "You are reaching the alumnæ and making College forms for a person, the inspirations of a life time, the opportunities for a life time, and the friendships for a life time.
